CUBAN MILITARY BASES

On January 19, 1981, a recently arrived Cuban, with whom there has been insufficient contact to determine his reliability, furnished the following information: (C)

He advised that he observed a military installation at Arroyo Arena in the area of Maurin Dam. He advised that he observed Soviet military men at this location. He further advised that the Soviets have some sort of underground operation at that location. He could furnish no further information concerning that military installation. (C)

He further advised that an acquaintance advised that there is a Cuban and Soviet military base in Matanzas, Cuba. The installation is located in the Northwest section of Matanzas. At this particular installation, the armament present includes heat-seeking missiles. Also present is a radar system which detects United States Naval ships in the coastal areas of Cuba. (C)

He could not furnish more specific information. (U)
